

SOLONS TAKE A REST.

Congress Adjourns Until the First of December.

THE TARIFF BILL IS NOW A LAW.

It receives the President's Signature After Being Signed by Speaker Reed and Vice President Morton—How the Senators voted on the Adoption of the Conference Report on the Measure—Papers in the Barrandis Case.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The long session of congress came to an end at 6:02 p. m. Wednesday, both houses adjourning sine die at that hour.

THE LAST DAY'S SESSION.

What Was Done in the Senate and House of Representatives.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The chaplain Wednesday invoked divine blessing upon the members of the house who were about to depart for their respective homes. Before the journal of Tuesday's proceedings of the house was read Breckinridge of Kentucky raised the point of order that there was no quorum present.

At 2:45 Speaker Reed signed the tariff bill and it was immediately sent to the senate. Postmaster Wheat's Resignation. Caswell presented to the house a letter addressed to the speaker by Postmaster Wheat, tendering his resignation. The speaker laid the letter before the house. Later Speaker from the committee on accounts submitted a report on the investigation into the conduct of the postmaster. The report states that the charges in the Enloe resolutions have been substantially proved, and that the relation between Wheat and the late postmaster of the house (Dillon) and his contractor (Culbertson) give rise to suspicion that some private arrangement existed between them whereby Dillon during the Forty-ninth and fiftieth congresses derived personal profits from the mail contract, no absolute proof of this has been obtained.

Senate Proceedings.

In the senate after the journal had been approved Sherman offered a resolution for the appointment of a committee of two senators to join a like committee of the house to wait upon the president and inform him that unless he shall have further communication to make the two houses are now ready to adjourn. The resolution was agreed to and Sherman and Harris were appointed the committee on the part of the senate.

Morton Signs the Tariff Bill.

At 2:55 p. m. the tariff bill was presented to the senate by the clerk of the house, Mr. Johnson. Two minutes later Vice President Morton affixed his signature to it. The signature was announced through Chief Clerk Johnson. The announcement was followed by the recognition of Aldrich, who reported from the committee on finance, that the provisions of the bill for adjustment of congress amended so as to make the time of final adjournment at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. The resolution was agreed to.

It is Now a Law.

When the tariff bill had received the vice president's signature it was taken to the president's room next to the senate lobby, where the president and all the members of his cabinet except Secretary Rusk were gathered together. The president immediately signed the bill.

THE CONFERENCE REPORT.

Three Republican Senators Voted Against Its Adoption.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The senate Tuesday sent the tariff bill toward the White House. The conference report was adopted shortly after 6 o'clock in the evening by a vote of 37 to 27—not a strict party vote, for three Republican senators joined the Democrats in refusing to support the report. These were Paddock, Plumb and Pettigrew. Paddock's main objection, as stated by himself, was the removal of the sugar duties, but he found many other things to object to, and wanted binding twice on the free list. Plumb was also against free sugar. He voted for the bill when it passed the senate because a good many things he wanted were in it. But the conference knocked out his tariff concessions, and he was not in favor of the increased duties he got laid on wines and liquors, and put a small duty on binding twice. Taken with his opposition to free sugar there were reasons enough for him to claim that he was not bound by any party ties to uphold the conference report.

Two Brothers Executed.

HAVANA, Oct. 1.—Two brothers, Jose and Carmelo Diaz, were executed in this city Tuesday for a particularly atrocious crime. They had been convicted of murdering a man named Pinar del Rio, and subjected her to the grossest indignities. The husband of the woman sought to avenge the dishonor of his wife, but was killed by the brothers, who also murdered the woman and then mutilated the bodies of their victims.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 1.—A gas explosion occurred in the Stirling colliery, owned by the Philadelphia and Reading Coal company, at noon Tuesday. Thomas Brennan, John Driscoll, Philip Shinn and Edward Durkin and three men whose names are unknown, were seriously burned and ten others were severely injured by the force of the explosion.

Fatal Shot His Father-in-Law.

CAMDEN, Mo., Oct. 1.—John Tucker fatally shot and killed Dr. W. Johnson, of this place, Monday night. The shooting was the result of a long existing feud. Tucker married John's daughter and she was the cause of the trouble. The two men were armed when they met. Tucker got the first shot which took effect in Johnson's side.

Items Which Are Out of the Common Run.

A SCHOOL TEACHER'S TOUGH TIME.

Her Pupils Rebel, Throw Ink in Her Face and Nearly Suffocate Her with Mucilage—A Boston Policeman Shoots a Little Boy Whom He Mistook for a Burglar—Terrible Ride on Top of a Passenger Coach.

WALPOLE, Mass., Oct. 1.—The teacher of the East district grammar school resigned a week ago on account of the ill manners of her charge. Miss Grace Parker, a pretty Boston girl, was elected to fill the position and gladly accepted, not knowing that her future scholars were plotting a warm reception for their new teacher, whoever she should be. Monday Miss Parker took charge. She had just finished prayers when one of the largest boys began to whistle. She told him to stop, but he only insulted her. She ordered him out of the building, when he picked up an ink well and, walking defiantly up to her, deliberately threw the contents in her face. This was a signal, and in a body the school boys and girls began to throw ink. The poor girl was thrown down, her clothing torn and hair pulled down, and ink and mucilage poured over her until she was nearly suffocated. She, nearly senseless, managed to drag herself to the door and stagger into the street. She is at a friend's house very ill, while the school remains closed. There has been no effort to punish the pupils, but the committee is advertising for a new teacher.

A FATAL MISTAKE.

A Policeman Shoots an 11-Year-Old Boy for a Burglar.

BOSTON, Oct. 1.—A policeman Tuesday night mistook an 11-year-old boy for a burglar and shot him dead. The shock of the discovery overcame the officer and he is so prostrated that his life is in danger. Burglaries have been frequent lately in the Highland district. John Davison, agent of the Boston & Albany, aged 15, living on Warren street, next door to a dwelling which was vacant, stole some grapes. At 10 o'clock Officer Kearney passed the spot and heard a whispering in the grape arbor. He suspected that burglars were trying to break in and ordered them to surrender. Instead of the two shadows dashed toward him in the darkness. He fired and one fell. Going up to the form he was horrified to find his victim a little curly-headed boy in knickerbockers. He staggered to the station and fainted. The boy's mother is prostrated.

A Boy's Terrible Ride.

CRESTON, Iowa, Oct. 1.—George Mulligan and a boy named Brown, each about 18 years of age, climbed on the top of a passenger coach at Creston early Tuesday morning, intending to steal a ride to Council Bluffs. The first covered bridge beyond Red Oak Mulligan raised his head and was instantly killed by a rafter of the bridge. His companion grasped the body and held it on the car with great difficulty. This train does not stop at small stations and the terrified boy had a fearful ride for many miles with his dead friend before he succeeded in attracting the attention of the train men, who stopped the train.

A Mysterious Disappearance.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Chief of Police John E. Murphy has left for Ogden, Utah, to investigate the mysterious disappearance of his brother, Detective James Murphy, at that place. Detective Murphy left here three weeks ago to bring back a criminal from the Pacific coast. At Ogden, on his way back, he placed his prisoner in jail and, giving his pocketbook to the clerk, started for the hotel, which he said he was going to take a walk. That was a week ago and he has not been seen since.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Fredericks Weimer, living at 1,333 Human street, was choked to death Tuesday night by a piece of raw beef. She was aged and debilitated, and had to be fed by her family. In some manner she got hold of the meat and while attempting to eat it was strangled.

CAPE VINCENT, N. Y., Oct. 1.—On account of the McKinley bill the two large seed houses here—the Cape Vincent Seed company and the Cleveland Seed company—have been busily engaged in freightage from Canada all the past week for their seed. The Cape Vincent Seed company has four schooners carrying peas and night, and is now running its ware house dry and night.

Killed the Engineer.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 1.—Through a misunderstanding of orders a freight train on the main line of the Louisville and Nashville road ran into a switch engine near Warrior, Tuesday, killing Engineer M. R. Johnson, seriously injuring William Bailey, brakeman, and wrecking a dozen or more cars.

A Bold Burglar.

ST. LOUIS, Ill., Oct. 1.—Tuesday night a burglar entered the residence of George P. Wild, the banker, and, after robbing him with a revolver, told Mrs. Wild that he wanted money, and that she had better find some for him. Mrs. Wild gave him her pocketbook, which contained about $15, and the burglar then escaped.

A Forgotten Operator Arrested.

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 1.—Frank Glosser, day operator at Lehighton, was arrested Tuesday on the charge of having caused, by his negligence, the wreck on the Jersey Central railroad Monday night, by which three men lost their lives.

An Unusual Occurrence.

BOSTON, Oct. 1.—In the supreme court Tuesday the jury returned a verdict sustaining the will of Elizabeth W. Gay, who left $25,000 to relatives and $100,000 to a number of charitable organizations.

THE PERILS OF FIREMEN.

Two Men Badly Injured at a Blaze in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—A fire of uncertain origin broke out in the two-story and basement brick building at 173 South Canal street shortly after 11 o'clock Tuesday night, and twelve firemen were seriously injured by the falling of the roof. The following are the injured: Richard Haverson, 736 Seymour street, face burned and internally hurt; Charles Kieck, 229 West Chicago avenue, head badly bruised; Capt. William Carey, face burned and shoulder sprained; Andrew Nelson, internal injuries, face and hands badly burned, with only one of his fingers left; William Kelly, feet crushed and face burned; Daniel Toomey, internally injured; Capt. Sweeney, hands and face burned; John Riley, shoulder broken; John Corcoran, back sprained and face burned; John Croft, face burned and arm sprained; and John Nelson, who is probably the only fatal case. The building was occupied on the second floor and basement by L. Franklin & Son as a plotter frame factory, and on the main floor by the Mills Railway Gate company. The loss is estimated to be from $40,000 to $45,000.

MISSISSIPPI'S DEMAND.

A Resolution Asking the Repeal of the Negro Suffrage Amendment.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 1.—The select committee of the constitutional convention to which was referred the resolution asking for the repeal of the Fifteenth amendment Tuesday reported in favor of its repeal with only one dissenting vote. The report says that while the two races are friendly in business affairs they are separated by race instincts and prejudices on all political and social questions. There is no hope of a change; that one or the other race must have control of political affairs, which will continually cause conflict.

Want the Revolution to Go Backward.

The committee states, as its deliberate judgment, that the only effectual remedy is the repeal of the Fifteenth amendment, so that the southern states can regulate negro suffrage as may be found necessary. Congress is asked to submit a proposition to the various for its repeal, and the committee says that Mississippi will gladly give by reason of the negro vote.

Returned to His First Love.

GREEN BAY, Wis., Oct. 1.—The Rev. Mr. Miller, the young Episcopal minister, who last February was reported as having suddenly resigned his position at Grace Episcopal church at Mequon, Wis., and joined the Roman Catholic church, has returned to the Episcopal church again. He spent four months at the Roman seminary of St. Francis, near Milwaukee, engaged in the study of theology, and his return to the Anglican church is a surprise to those who knew him best. It is thought that Mr. Miller will not re-engage in the Protestant Episcopal ministry.

A "Lifer" Escapes from Prison.

WAUPUN, Wis., Oct. 1.—John Paul Soquet, a prisoner in the jail here, made his escape from the prison for the murder of a woman in 1885, has escaped. The escape was made Saturday afternoon, the facts having been carefully suppressed until Tuesday in hopes that the prisoner would be recaptured and publicity avoided. Saturday last while digging potatoes under guard on the prison farm, the prisoner succeeded in going outside the fence surrounding the farm, which was guarded, and that was the last seen of him.

Bad for Sunday Picnics.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 1.—The supreme court has just rendered an opinion in the case of Dugan against the state. The court holds that carrying persons to and from picnic parties on Sunday is not a work of necessity or charity within the meaning of the statute, and is therefore illegal. Any person who is made to indicate the carrying of persons to and from picnic parties on Sunday, Judge Elliott rendered the decision, and the entire court concurred in it.

A Fight with Indians.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 1.—Sept. 23 a party of fifty Yaqui Indians, well armed, attacked a wagon train near Camurica and captured it, after killing one of the teamsters. Twenty-five men of the Eleventh regular cavalry were in pursuit of the Indians, whom they succeeded in overtaking. A fight ensued, in which 10 Indians and one other of the pursuers were killed, and two of their number were wounded. The wagon train booty was recovered from the Indians, who fled toward the United States boundary. Their loss is unknown.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 1.—The Journal announces that the base ball firm of Morton, Haeh & Glade is on the eve of dislocation. The trouble is personal and not financial, as the club has cleared $12,000 this season. It is a case of "buy or sell." ## BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

The Arrival of Emperor William at Vienna.

WELCOMED BY FRANCIS JOSEPH.

A Magnificent Spectacle Presented to the Visiting German Emperor—The Route to the Imperial Palace Lined with Half a Million People Who Heavily Cheers a Two-Kingdom as They Ride Along—Other Foreign Items.

VIENNA, Oct. 1.—The city presents a scene of extraordinary splendor in honor of the visit of Emperor William of Germany and king of Saxony. Never before has such a profusion of rich and elaborate decorations been displayed here. It is well-nigh impossible to describe them in detail. They include four triumphal arches of artistic design and a series of Venetian masts carrying long festoons of evergreens and flowers, which convert the way over which the royal guests moved into a superb power of brilliant colors. Every house has its decorations of flags, flowers or brightly colored hangings. Prater struts, the broad thoroughfare leading to the palace, which was embraced in the route of the procession, was also magnificently adorned with flags and flowers.

Arrival of Emperor William.

The difficulties have everywhere more than met the wishes of the emperor of Austria, who has announced his desire to spare nothing in the entertainment of his imperial ally. The emperor's guests arrived by special train in the morning and received a cordial welcome from Francis Joseph at the railway station, which had been converted into a magnificent pavilion by the aid of bunting and festooned evergreens. The imperial party was escorted to the court carriages, which were in waiting, and the line of march was taken up toward the palace. The route as laid out was about four miles long, and the entire way was a continuous scene of enthusiasm.

Withdrew for a Week.

Cheer and honor have been from the multitudes, which thickly lined the streets. A conservative estimate of the number of spectators places it at fully 500,000. Flags waved in every direction and flowers were thrown from windows on the pathway of the royal procession. It is generally conceded that the reception of the imperial visitor exceeded in brilliancy that given him two years ago on his accession to the throne of Germany. Wednesday afternoon the Emperors William and Francis Joseph, the duke of Saxe-Coburg, and Prince Leopold left for Styria, where they will enjoy a week's hunting.

Under New Management.

Messrs. Gross & Drysdale, the new proprietors, took charge of the Combs' European hotel and restaurant, on South Water street yesterday, and their announcement will be found in "The Review" this morning. Both gentlemen have had large experience in the hotel and restaurant business, and it goes without saying that they will make a success of their new venture. They intend to spare no pains or expense to make their establishment first class in every particular, and their extensive acquaintance throughout the county will bring them a very desirable custom. The hotel will be conducted on the European plan and their accommodations. Special rates will be made to regular boarders. In addition to the restaurant a first class lunch counter will be added, a feature that will be especially welcome to their former friends. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

REGIMENTS MEET.

THE 115TH AND 116TH ILLINOIS INFANTRY REUNITE.

They Have a Fine Picnic at Oakland Park. Officers Elected—A Regimental History. Roster of those Present—Meeting at Night—At Decatur Again Next Year.

Yesterday was not a very cheerful day for an outdoor picnic, but the veterans of the 115th and 116th regiments of Illinois infantry and appointed the time for their annual reunion and nothing less than a blizzard could have kept them from it. They found shelter under the big pavilion, had a good time generally meeting old comrades and their families, telling stories of the '90s and eating a bountiful dinner in great contrast to some they had during the war.

Officers for the year were elected by each regiment. For the One Hundred and Fifteenth, R. J. Roberts, president; Theodore Van Hagen, of Delavan, vice-president; James Carter, secretary; E. T. Clements, treasurer. For the One Hundred and Sixteenth, Ira N. Barnes, president; I. N. Martin, vice-president; William Grason, treasurer; Martin Baker, recording secretary; Al Hopkins, corresponding secretary; A. C. Stevens, assistant corresponding secretary.

A committee consisting of one member from each company of the One Hundred and Fifteenth was appointed to collect old historical matter concerning the regiment with a view to having it published. They are to report at next year's meeting. The committee members are Col. George A. Pattee, A. B. Leeper, John Weeks, Capt. Samuel Wymer, J. H. C. Royle, Major F. L. Hays, John W. Dove, S. K. Hatfield, George W. James and Corporal Gates.

The next meeting is to be held at Decatur the first Thursday in September, 1891. The One Hundred and Sixteenth regiment then invited One Hundred and Fifteenth to join them in another reunion.

At the G. A. R. hall in the evening the good time was continued. Stories were told, songs sung, while all the veterans present had voice in one or both. Many interesting and laughable anecdotes of both regiments were told, and a regimental history of either one of them would surely prove valuable matter. The reunion closed at 11 o'clock with the singing of "America," in which all joined.

The One Hundred and Fifteenth regiment was formed of Macon, Shelby, Christian, Edgar, Tazewell and Sangamon county men, and the colors were given by J. H. Moore. William Kinman and George H. Pattee were the lieutenant colonels; Pattee and John W. Lapham majors, John H. Woods, Allen Latsinger and J. W. F. Peddecor adjutants, B. F. Farley and C. W. Jerome quartermasters, and E. W. Moore, C. W. Higgins and Garner H. Bane surgeons.

The One Hundred and Sixteenth regiment was made up almost wholly of Macon county men, 980 officers and privates, and started for the front from Decatur Nov. 8, 1862, returning in 1865 with 135 men. The colonels were Nathan W. Tupper and John E. Maddux, lieutenant colonels, J. P. Boyd, Anderson, Freeman, John E. Maddux and John S. Windsor, majors, A. Froman, Anderson, McClurg, John S. Windsor and Nicholas Geschwind, adjutants, C. H. Fuller, W. F. Crissey and Myron Holcomb, quartermasters, Lyman King and C. F. Emery, surgeons, Ira N. Barnes.

A register was kept where all enrolled their names. The following are those present from
